There is one proposal for a conference admission, and one for a technical training event. However you call psconf.eu 2019, it matches both, so depending on the budget you want to use, choose the one more appropriate to you.

Once you are ready to register your seat, visit www.psconf.eu and fill out the registration form. Make sure you enter all data correctly, especially the name, address, and optionally PO number, as these items will directly be copied onto your invoice.

Once you registered yourself, your seat is reserved, and you'll receive an invoice by email. The invoice is payable within 30 days, and once paid, your seat is reserved.

Should payment processes in your company take longer than 30 days, or should you have any additional question, please use the contact form on www.psconf.eu to contact us.
